Re: Petition

Dear Mr. Henshall:

Returned unfiled is your petition for writ of habeas corpus and letters. The question raised by the petition are beyond the jurisdiction of the California courts as they appear to raise Federal issues.

Very truly yours,

FRANK A. McGUIRE
Court Administrator and
Clerk of the Supreme Court

Thank you for the recent return, unfiled, of my Petition for Redress of Grievance in the form of a NON-statutory Writ of Habeas Corpus addressed to the court in a capacity of exercising concurrent jurisdiction of a federal Circuit Court, courtesy of Supervising Deputy Clerk J. L. Casados.

And the admission that “the petition presents questions which are beyond the jurisdiction of California courts as they appear to present federal questions” has verified the accuracy of many of my contentions, including:

1. That the Writ of Habeas Corpus has been suspended, perhaps in perpetuity, and WITHOUT there being any known state of rebellion or invasion which might justify even a temporary suspension (the obvious conclusion); -- and by necessary inference:
2. That there are NO constitutional and/or judicial Courts in CALIFORNIA;
3. That CALIFORNIA is not only NOT a State admitted into “this Union” (Article IV, Section 3 of the Constitution for the United States {1787-1791}), it has somehow been UN-admitted, albeit WITHOUT any known constitutional authority, and relegated to the status of a federal (insular ?) territorial possession;
4. And with key officers of the territorial government NOT having been appointed by the President, as required by the ‘appointments ‘clause’, Article II, Section 2, Paragraph 2, there is NO lawful de jure California government anywhere in sight;

5. That without any constitutional/judicial Courts, there is NO judicial process which can be invoked, which makes each and every CALIFORNIA 'law', regulation, etc. at least a Bill of Attainder and a plain violation of at least Article I, Section 9 or 10, as the case may be, of the Constitution for the united States {1787-1791} and/or Article I, Section 16 of the California Constitution (1849).

While I would have preferred, and indeed was entitled to, an order of the court dismissing the action, likely in fine 12(b)(6) form as befits the disfavored class of pesky pro per litigants /aka/ the sovereign body politic of California and of the Nation & Republic, I understand all too well the perplexing position that such an action would have presented.

Accordingly, I also understand why Tani, et al, chose, as it were, NOT to set the public record with disclosures of this type, notwithstanding the fact that at least lawful de jure State Citizens have the right to invoke the judicial power of the united States and/or of one of the Several States (Cohens v Virginia 19 US 264).

What remains is the question of in what judicial forum the concurrent jurisdiction of a federal Circuit Court, a jurisdiction which has existed in State Courts for 225 (!) years, can be invoked and substantive relief, and actual (!) justice be obtained.

Your prompt attention to this matter is solicited and appreciated. Address all correspondence to me at my address exactly as it appears herein.

Constitutionally,

William Henshall

Dear Mr. Henshall,

Thank you for visiting my office on March 19, 2014 and on April 8, 2014, and for mailing correspondence to me in between.

I read your letter dated March 19, 2014, in which you ask that I submit your Petition for Redress of Grievance on the floor of the Assembly, and the subsequent correspondence. After reviewing your request and the background documents you provided, I have concluded that I am unable to present your Petition. As was communicated by Frank A. McGuire, Court Administrator and Clerk of the Supreme Court of California, in a letter to you dated November 18, 2013, the question you raise appears to relate to Federal issues and is beyond the jurisdiction of the California Courts and California Assembly.

Sincerely,

KEVIN MULLIN

Total – 131 pages

We have no documents responsive to your request for bonds, and we have no documents responsive to part 4 of your request. With regard to part 2 of your request, the California Constitution includes processes for revisions and amendments. The California Constitution of 1849 was not repealed; therefore, we have no documents responsive to part 2 of your request.

California law, including the California Public Records Act, permits the Secretary of State to charge a fee for providing copies of its records. The fee for each of these single-page oaths of office is $1.00 and certification is an additional $5.00 per document. The total cost of the 140 pages of oaths is $131.00 for plain copies or $786.00 for certified copies.

The fee for copied documents from the Archives is $0.25 per page, with certification an additional $5.00 per document. For the California Constitution, the copy charges would be as follows:

1849 California Constitution

- English version: 19 pages x $0.25 per page = $4.75 + $5.00 certification fee = TOTAL $9.75
- Spanish version: 40 pages x $0.25 per page = $10.00 + $5.00 certification fee = TOTAL $15.00

1879 California Constitution

- 69 pages x $0.25 per page = $17.25 + $5.00 certification fee = TOTAL $22.25

If you would like to receive copies of any of these responsive documents, please indicate specifically which documents you would like to receive when sending a check made payable to the Secretary of State for the copying (and certification, if applicable) fees, to the following address:
